

Patrice Schuetz appointed Chief Financial Officer of Antin Infrastructure Partners

Paris, London, New York | October 13, 2021

Antin Infrastructure Partners, one of the world's leading infrastructure investment firms announces the appointment of Patrice Schuetz as Group Chief Financial Officer and Partner, effective immediately.

Patrice Schuetz joins Antin after 13 years at the Investment Banking division of Morgan Stanley. In his last position, he was an Executive Director in the Financial Institutions Group responsible for European Asset & Wealth Management Coverage and Swiss Financial Institutions. Prior to that, Mr. Schuetz served in various finance and accounting roles at ABB Group in Zurich.

Mr. Schuetz is a graduate of the University of St Gallen, where he received a Master's degree in Banking and Finance. He also holds a Bachelor's degree from the University of Applied Sciences in Business Administration in Zurich and completed further executive education at Harvard Business School.

Alain Rauscher and Mark Crosbie, co-founders and managing partners at Antin, said:

"We are delighted to welcome Patrice to the Antin team. His financial and markets experience will be a key asset for Antin. Patrice's appointment as CFO is an important milestone for Antin as it enters a new chapter in its history as a listed company after successfully completing its IPO on Euronext Paris."
