HOFI welcomes Antin Infrastructure Partners as a long-term strategic partner

Milan, 11 November 2022 – HOFI, the leading funeral infrastructure operator in Italy, is pleased to welcome Antin as a new long-term strategic partner. All the current shareholders of HOFI, including Augens Capital, will continue to support the company, sending a strong message of continuity.

Founded in 2019 in Milan, HOFI has become a trusted provider of funeral services to Italian families, building a strong network of funeral infrastructure across Northern Italy and supporting bereaving families. HOFI looks forward to continuing this growth, including partnering with additional funeral infrastructure operators that provide high quality services to families.

“HOFI’s mission is to provide the highest level of service to bereaving families during difficult times. With Antin, we are welcoming a new long-term partner which will allow us to provide these high-quality services to additional communities and families” said Marco Mantica, Chairman of HOFI.

“With this partnership we enhance HOFI’s ability to be the preferred partner to long-standing traditional funeral providers that share our values” said Andrea Cerato, Sandro Lorandi, Luca Oliva, Angelo Pedretti shareholders and directors of HOFI.

Angelika Schöchlin, Senior Partner at Antin, commented: “We are delighted to work alongside such long-standing and trusted partners to continue HOFI’s essential mission of supporting Italian families.”
